

Developing Family Priorities

I Corinthians 10:31 - So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God

Prayer: Ask the Lord to help give you wisdom as you start the process of evaluating your priorities. (James 1:5-7)

Questions: Here is a list of questions that may help you think about the priorities in your home?

1. If you were to stand before Christ, what areas do you think that He might be displeased with?
(Why these, and how is not doing these things affecting you and your home right now?)
2. What kinds of things occupy your time? Are these areas enhancing your spiritual life, a hindrance to your spiritual life, or simply just fill time?
3. What does it mean to “do all to the glory of God” concerning my priorities
4. Ask your spouse to evaluate what they observe are top priorities in your week?
5. What are the trends in how, when, and where you spend money?
6. As you evaluate, ask yourself, “Would God be pleased with where I am placing the resources that He has entrusted to me?”
7. What are some of the top priorities I want to model to my children before they leave my home?

8. How important is Christ's church? For what reasons will I allow my family to miss church?

Evaluation:

1. List the area that God has revealed needs the most attention individually?

2. List the area that God has revealed needs the most attention in your home?

	Priority:
Husband	1. Why this one?
Wife	2. Why this one?
Family	3. Why this one?
